3N / 4D - HELI TOUR

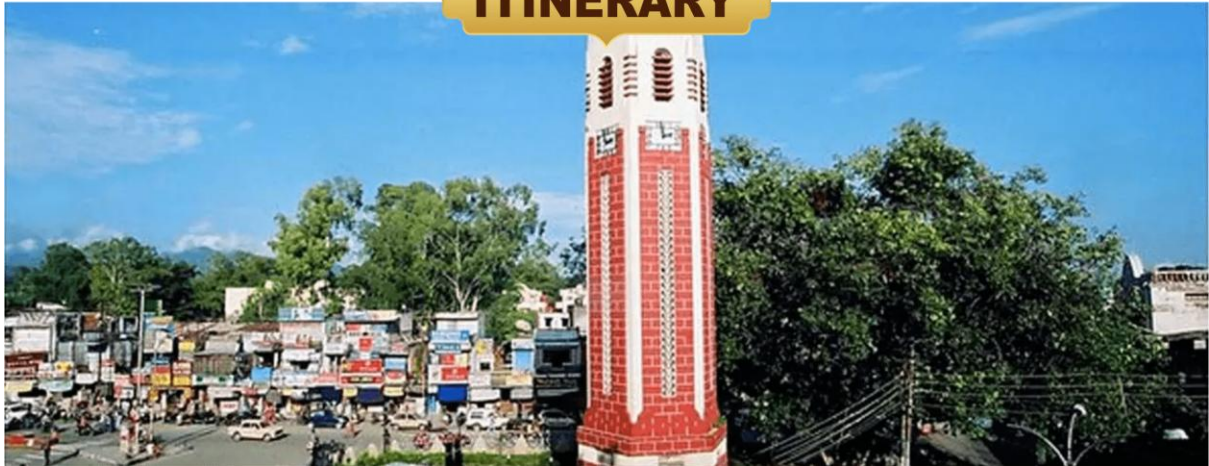

Dehradun - Kedarnath – Badrinath - Dehradun

Kedarnath: Nestled in the breathtaking Mandakini Valley and cradled by towering peaks, the majestic Kedarnath Temple rests on a glacial terrace- a remnant of an ancient glacier long melted away. This is Lord Shiva's domain, and the region stands as a living testament to his divine legends and mystical exploits. According to tradition, the temple was built by the Pandava's, protagonists of the Mahabharata, as a tribute to Lord Shiva's forgiveness following their act of fratricide- granted after an exhilarating chase through the Himalayas. The pilgrimage to Kedarnath — the most significant of the twelve Jyotirlingas scattered across India- is a journey not just of faith, but of communion with timeless tales, legendary devotion, and the divine presence itself.

Badrinath: The Shrine of Badrinath is believed to be as ancient as time itself. Dedicated to Lord Vishnu, it was revived in the 8th century by Adi Shankaracharya as part of his spiritual mission to rejuvenate Hinduism. Situated along the banks of the Alakhnanda River (also known as Rishi Ganga), the temple and the cluster of sacred sites surrounding it form a destination of immense spiritual resonance. The final 11 kilometers leading to Badrinath is a steep and invigorating ascent. Upon reaching Devdarshni, an awe-inspiring panorama of the entire valley unfolds — the temple town, the resplendent façade of the shrine, and the twin peaks of Nar and Narayan standing as sentinels on either side. Above them rises the radiant Neelkanth peak, crowning the landscape with celestial splendor, invoking an immediate sense of spiritual upliftment.
